

THE
TREATY OF MUTUAL TRUST, PEACE, AND RECOGNITION
BETWEEN THE KINGDOMS OF
RUTHENIA AND WILTOGO

Forward:

To all parties in signature; in the face of the UNITED NATIONS DECLARATION OF HUMAN RIGHTS, and further international conventions drafted in the name of peace and co-operation between the states (both recognized and unrecognized), it is the obligation of nations in signature of TREATY OF MUTUAL TRUST AND PEACE to follow these regulations and procedures and for the leaders of the state to pursuit peace and understanding of both nations beyond their regular station.

Part One

ARTICLE I

It shall be established that in this document, the sovereignty and independence of the KINGDOM OF RUTHENIA and the KINGDOM OF WILTOGO shall not be infringed or abridged in the name of furthering either kingdom's station.

ARTICLE II

Through the signing of the TREATY OF MUTUAL TRUST AND PEACE, the kingdoms of RUTHENIA and WILTOGO shall formally recognize the sovereignty and independence of both states until dissolution of one (or all) of the states.

ARTICLE III

It is through this mutual recognition, in which both kingdoms of RUTHENIA and WILTOGO establish formal diplomatic and economic relations in respect to aforementioned conventions and declarations of the UNITED NATIONS.

Part Two

ARTICLE IV

Through this recognition of diplomatic relations, it shall be established that both states remain separate and equal as independent states with regard to national legislature and foreign affairs, that that this document establishes relations between only nations that sign the treaty.

ARTICLE V

Herein this document it shall be established that the relationship acknowledged by both states is unbinding until dissolution of a state or passage of opposing legislature is passed within a national house of representatives, and that the establishment of these ties shall be based on the recognition of human rights.

ARTICLE VI

Both kingdoms acknowledge these relationships to be built on co-operation and perpetual peace between each state, and that the independent citizens of both nations respect and recognize the sovereignty, laws, and conventions of the other.

ARTICLE VII

This treaty shall formally come into effect one week following the signing and ratification of the document by either nation's independent national legislature, or alternate representative bodies, and the heads of state.

ARTICLE VIII

This treaty shall be an unbinding source of diplomatic relations between both the KINGDOM OF RUTHENIA and the KINGDOM OF WILTOGO for a period of no more than ten years following ratification, after which time it must again be ratified by both parties for renewal (with appropriate adjustments if need be).

I, King Isaac the First, Ruler over the Micronation of Wiltozo, accept the conditions of this treaty and pledge to uphold the conditions herein.
